LATE GENERAL NEWS.

DeKalb, September 12.

Verdict—Not GUILTY!!!!!

The verdict in the Chisholm case in Mississippi proves beyond doubt that a Democrat cannot be convicted in the south for the murder of a Republican.

The total vote of Maine, it is estimated, will reach 139,000. Republican gain over last year as far as returned 12,619. Davis, Republican, probably lacks 300 to 500 votes of a mejority over all, but will of course be elected by the legislature.

Gen. Chester A. Authur, the former Collector of New York, has been made Chairman of the New York Republican State Committee.

The President has made a pleasant speech to the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Evarts has for a week been in Canada, the guest of the Governor General and the Princess Louise.

Hon. John Welsh of Philadelphia, late minister to the Court of St. James, has been tendered a public reception in the old Independence Hall.

The yellow fever closed at Memphis on Friday with 21 new cases. No increase in New Orleans nor anywhere else. Jay Gould has sent another check of $5,000 to the President of the Howard Association, and the citizens of Pittsburg, Penn., $1,000.

Ex Gov. Hoffman has deserted Tammany and will support Robinson.

At Athens, Ala., a mob of 3,000 broke into the jail and took out a man who had been sentenced to be hung for murdering his wife, to lynch him, but when they got ready nobody would tie the rope—and the whole crowd stampeded.

The Republicans of Maryland have nominated the following ticket: For Governor, James A. Gary, of Howard county, by acclamation; for Comptroller, Samuel Mellahan, of Queen Anne's; for Attorney General, Francis M. Darby, of Washington; for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, James McCullough, of Cecil county.

The Democratic state convention of Wisconsin have nominated Alex. Mitchell of Milwaukee for Governor; Geo. H. King for Lt. Governor; and Samuel Ryan for Secretary of State.

The reports in regard to the cotton crop from the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana are, that cotton has been injured about 20 per cent by the wet weather.

The Wilmington Star of a few weeks ago, having proved that Daniel Webster was an arrant secessionist, has now discovered that the people of the north are vastly more "ignorant" than those of the south. Both of these propositions having been conclusively demonstrated, we understand that next week the Star will demonstrate that Amenia is of a higher order of civilization than France, and England more "ignorant" than Bulgaria.

Gen. J. B. Hood became impoverished in consequence of the repudiation of the state debt by the Democrats of Louisiana. It is meet that his orphan childrea, now also impoverished, should not therefore be left in want.

The Hon. John R. French, recently Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, is spoken of as one of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

There has been an outbreak in Afghanistan and the British envoy and suite have been murdered. There is an attempt to incite a general revolt.

The President, Gen. W. T. Sherman, and Attorney General Devens, have gone to Ohio.

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, through her attorney Mr. Charles H. Parkhurst, has filed a petition in the Supreme Court of Rhode Island asking the appointment of a trustee or trustees to take charge of her property, and alleging that her husband, William Sprague, and herself are not now living together as husband and wife.

Alexander H. Stevens of Georgia says he doesn't think much of Uncle Sammy Tilden, and prefers Gen. Hancock as the Democratic candidate for President.

MAINE REPUBLICANS HAVE WHIPPED GREENBACKS AND DEMOCRATS COMBINED.

A well known and respected citizen of Orange county, S. C., came to United States Marshal Wallace and requested assistance to suppress an organization known as "Sleekers," formed to prevent amalgamation of races, and punish colored men married to or living with white women. He states that the organization whipped one colored man on Saturday night preceding Brice's murder.

Senor Canovas Del Castillo has been charged with the mission of officially asking the hand of the Archduchess Marie Christine of Austria in marriage with King Alfonso of Spain.

It is said that Gen. Grant's house at Galena, Ill., is all ready and waiting for him, and that the General writes to a friend at Galena that he is going there to live.

The Hon. Henry L. Pierce of Massachusetts, talked about as the Republican candidate for Governor, denies explicitly that he was engaged in trade with rebels and blockaders during the war, as charged by Gen. B. F. Butler.

The Hon. John Kerr, a Judge of the Superior Court, died at Reidsville on the 5th inst., aged 68. He was a Whig member of Congress, and a Whig candidate for Governor in old times, and in his palmy days was more than a respectable lawyer, and a very eloquent orator. He was one of those whom the war badly demoralized, and since the war he has been one of the most unreasonable and violent of all our former leading men.

The rich news from Maine just come to town,
Which makes the Dems look surly;
Their high raised hopes are all cast down,
They've ceased their hurly-burly.

Tell Barksdale, of Mississippi, of the verdict of Maine, concerning the murder of Dixon.

Will South Carolina continue to kill white and colored Republicans after the Maine Election?

Honest money and free ballots was the war cry that won the Maine and California elections.

Maine says that no more Republicans in the south shall be murdered on account of their political opinions.

A friend writing us from Robeson county, says his county is for Sherman for President and Buxton for Governor.

Judge Tourgee says that "North Carolina is Republican on a fair count." That we are going to have in 1880, or a fight.

North Carolina is twenty thousand Republican majority, notwithstanding what weak kneed, sore head Republicans may say.

Lord Ferrell should send and get the murderers of Brice and put them on as route agents in South Carolina, as he seems to prefer that class of persons to act as his subordinates.

The report on our streets last week, that a duel had taken place, or was about to take place, between Col. I. J. Young and Col. R. C. Badger, we understand, is entirely untrue.

Ohio is next. When the third juryman is heard concerning the "Mississippi plan," killing of white and colored Republicans in the south must and shall stop, says the jury, as far as heard from.

Will Mississippi hear the thunder from Maine, indicating the tremendous storm that will come over the country in 1880, when lightning will strike the Democratic party.

Sandy Little, Esq., of Anson county, writes us that the people of his county are for the Hon. Jno. Sherman for President, and B. P. Buxton for Governor. He has made several speeches in their behalf.

The Greenback party was the chicken hatched by a Democratic hen; but the old chicken carried its young one out in the dews to sun, and Maine and California have made it very sick. Ohio will give it the pip, and New York will bury the little chicken before it is old enough to crow.

20 SENATORS OUT OF 33 ARE REPUBLICAN IN MAINE.

NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

Tammany Bolts and Nominates John Kelly.

The New York Democratic convention which met at Syracuse on Thursday, nominated the following ticket:—Lucius Robinson (the present Gov.) for Governor; Clarkson N. Potter, for Lt. Governor; Allen C. Beach, for Secretary of State; Thomas W. Alcott for Comptroller; James Mackin, for Treasurer; and A. Schoonmaker, for Attorney General.

On the nomination of Robinson the Tammany delegates withdrew in a body, and organized a convention in another hall, and nominated for Governor John Kelly of New York city, the Sachem of Tammany. They also appointed a committee authorized to designate the rest of the ticket.

This is a success for the Tilden wing of the party.

Mr. Courtney who presided over the Tammany bolters made a very severe speech against Robinson, denouncing him as being "owned by the great tricksters of Cipher Alley." David Dudly Field also made a speech against Robinson.

JUSTICE GRADY.

Owing to additional information we have received, concerning this law officer, we again refer to him.

It will be remembered by our readers that some months ago we published the facts concerning a boy whom Justice Grady sent to jail for non payment of costs; afterwards he took up the commitment and told the sheriff to discharge the boy, owing to the fact that he did not want the case to go before the Criminal Court—being afraid of the result and a full exposure. We also informed our readers of the murder of a man by the name of Jones, while the constable and another man were trying to arrest one Randall Jordan, whom the Justice was auxious to send to jail, in order that he might get his costs in a former case he had tried against Jordan. We are now reliably informed that Randal Jordan is the step-father of the boy whom Justice Grady had before him, and whom he was forced to turn loose, owing to the fact that Randal Jordan and his wife employed Mr. Bellamy, which forced the boy's dismissal. This, on the part of Jordan, made Justice Grady very mad. He found out that some six months previous another small boy had been slapped in the face by Jordan, while they were at work together in a field. Justice Grady sent after this boy, and told him if he did not take out a warrant for Jordan, that he (Grady) would fine him (the boy.) So the warrant was issued, and Jordan was tried by his enemy, Grady, and sentenced to pay the costs. Jordan could not pay it and was ordered to jail. This vengeance on the part of Grady, caused poor Jones to lose his life. The constable let Jordan remain at French's rock quarry, at Rocky Point, for three months before arresting him. He knew, we understand, that he was there, but he said, "wait until after my trial for the killing of Jones."

We state these matters, so that our readers can see what an amount of bad blood is used by a man occupying the position of a Justice of Peace, and who uses his official position to wreak vengeance on a poor defenceless colored man. How manly!

Mrs. Minnie Scott Mann, wife of Major James C. Mann, formerly of this city, but now of San Francisco, died at her husband's residence in that city on the 27th of last month. Her unanticipated death brings sadness to many friends who knew her here, and who still remember her charms of manner and her genius.

DEATH OF MR. GRAEFL.—This interesting old gentleman died here on Sunday last, of liver complaint. He was a Hungarian and was born to titled rank in that country, where he now has two brothers and a daughter living, who are people of rank. He was educated at the University of Pesth, and had sat in the Hungarian Parliament. This might seem strange if he had been an Englishman, but in Hungary all the sons of a nobleman have rank and title equally, and seats by right of birth in the Diet. Arriving in America about 25 years ago, he lived in New York for a while with various luck, and about 11 years ago, came to this city, where he has lived ever since. At first he made spirit barrels, but latterly he made cigars from pure Havana, for which he had a good many customers about town. He was courtly and reserved in manners, had but few with whom he conversed freely, and preserved his old manners to the last. He was buried from the First Presbyterian Church, and quite a number of his friends followed him to Oakdale, and covered his grave with flowers.

SUDDEN DEATHS.—We regret to learn of the sudden death on Thursday of Mrs. Mary E. Westbrook, consort of Mr. A. I. Westbrook, of Rocky Point, Pender county. The deceased lady was very nearly seventy years of age and for some time past has been suffering from an aberation of the mind, and on Tuesday while still suffering from this mental disorder took an opiate which resulted in her death.

Mr. William Farrior one of the most respected and much esteemed citizens of Duplin county, dropped dead in his field near Kenansville Thursday afternoon. He was about 75 years of age and he died as he had lived, a respected citizen and an honest man, of whom it can well be said, truly a good man hath departed.

Policeman Everett shot himself through the hand while trying to cock his revolver to shoot an escaping prisoner.

OBITUARY.

There is a nestling worm in every flower along the path of life, and whilst we admire the spreading leaves and unfolding blossoms, the traitor often consumes the root and all the beauty falls. These reflections present themselves to the mind when death enters the charmed family circle and snatches from it one of the most loved and highly cherished. So has death entered the home of my friends, Mr. and Mrs. McQueen Blue, of Keysville, Hillsborough county, Fla., and carried away the "pet of the household."—Little Harry McQueen Blue died on the morning of August 27th, 1879, of putrid sore throat, aged two years and seven months. Being a child of a remarkably bright intellect and affectionate disposition it was but natural that around him should entwine the most earnest and tender love of his parents and all the household. But he is gone, that voice which was music to the parents' ears, warbles sweet symphonies in Heaven. The society of weak, impure and unhappy mortals is exchanged for that of pure blessed spirits, and the fair brow is entwined with a never fading crown.—Tampa, Fla., Sept. 2d, 1879. T. A. C.

We stood at an open window
Leaning far over the sill,
And if something hadn't happened
We might have stood there still;
But we reached for a banging shutter
In a blinding northeast breeze,

To join in the obsequies.

IF WE COULD ONLY HAVE KNOWN what a storm was brewing (in a teapot), and how far off that shutter was, we should never have ventured our head outside of that window; but it is too late for regrets now; we are nonplussed, completely squelched, have been sat upon, and our friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to attend the obsequies on

As he slips he slides, and every time he slides he slips up most woefully. We leave our "Kind friends" to find out the meaning of the above, and while they are doing so we will ask the following questions:

Havn't we the ugliest and dirtiest store in the State?

Havn't we the poorest stock of goods in Wilmington?

Havn't we made prices much higher since we commenced?

Havn't we been very unaccommodating and impolite to you?

Havn't we charged you for all he goods delivered?

Havn't we made a great many mistakes and refused to correct them when our attention was called thereto?

All of our friends who answer "yes" to the above questions will please not buy from us any more. Respectfully and truly,

In glancing over last Sunday's paper we regretted to notice the meth acknowledgment from some of our brother grocers that we had taken away part of their trade, and making an appeal to the others not to leave them. We regret this exceedingly, especially as they were so kind and considerate about our coming to grief, but suppose, as we have determined to do the

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Ed'r & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1879.

A Mr. Brice, a very honorable and leading Republican in South Carolina, was murdered a few days ago by the Democratic demons of that state. It is said that Mr. Brice had just reorganized the Republican party of his county and was getting ready for the next campaign, and the Red Shirts rallied and put him out of the way. Not a single Democratic paper in the state published the matter—they keep it perfectly silent. "But murder will out." Some poor Republican has written the facts to a man in Washington, and so the matter was made public. But there are thousands of others who are killed and no one ever knows of it outside of the immediate neighborhood. Nothing will ever stop this until the last one of these assassins are hung, as they ought to be.

Col. Young has gotten out a bench warrant for Col. Bennett and others, who took part in the re-taking of the blockade goods from the Revenue Collector, at Wadesboro, a few days ago. The agent had captured a wagon load of tobacco which was running the blockade and carried it to Wadesboro, when Col. Bennett and others, by force, took it and returned it to the owner.—They claimed that they had a writ from the Clerk of the Superior Court, but if such was the fact, it was not worth the paper it was written on—it was only a pretext to get a criminal friend out of the way. The matter will now be settled, and notwithstanding the very high standing of the parties, they should be made to know that such conduct will be punished by the courts, let the defendants be lawyers or farmers.

The true meaning of it is, Colonel Bennett wants to be Governor, and this act is the beginning of his canvass.

If Cyrus W. Field's word is worth anything at all Samuel J. Tilden is a sneaking liar about a matter of business with Fields, Fields states that persons owning over nine-tenths of the stock in the New York Elevated Railroad signed an agreement not to put their stock on the market, Tilden among them. That Tilden directly transferred his stock to his nephew, Pelton, and that Pelton went to trading it off secretly for Tilden. That the stock went up to 200 per share, and Pelton sold so much that it fell to 164. Fields also says that Tilden came on board of the steamer as he was sailing for Europe, and "whispered" to him that he would help keep up the stocks, and that he had hardly got out of the harbor before Tilden's stock went on the market.—Fields says of Tilden: this conduct was to me a revelation of the character of the man, but of which I had been frequently warned, but of which I had never a great man. Cunning is not wisdom, nor is it the kind of ability needed for public officers. Craft and trickery may make a politician, but not a statesman. Mr. Fields concludes: "Long experience after a close intimacy of two years is worth anything, it is that he is a man so given to 'ways that are dark,' to cunning and deceit, that his very nature is so false and treacherous that he cannot be trusted either in business or politics; and that the man or party that intrusts either interest or honor to his keeping is sure to be betrayed." Cyrus is certainly savage on Samuel.

THE MISSISSIPPI IMBROLIO.

The occasion of the trial of the Kemper county murderers, and the testimony of Mrs. Chisholm, gives an opportunity for a little more than the ordinary attention to the affairs of that state.

We publish in another place the report of her testimony as sent by the Associated Press. It is of course only the repetition of the old and horrible story, but we print it so as to give something like a synopsis of the proceedings of the court.

At the same time with this trial there is in progress in Mississippi a controversy going on among the Democrats as to whether the Yazoo and Kemper—the shot-gun policy shall be continued. There are two parties among the Democrats on the question, one for, and one deprecatingly against the shot-gun policy by which Lamar was sent to the Senate, and Chalmers and Singleton and others to the House—the policy by which the Democrats acquired unlawful power.

Some idea of the state of things may be gained by a few extracts from the Vicksburg Herald, a very able and reasonable Democratic paper. It says:

The Bourbons—and we mean by the Bourbons the extreme Democrats who contend that the end justifies the means, no matter how questionable the means may be—advocate a convention. They purpose for this convention to make nominations for every office, and then put the ticket through, fairly, if they can, by other means, if they must. They do not propose to pay much attention to the wishes of the negroes. They say, "When we get our ticket in the field, we'll elect it." As the colored vote in the county is nearly double that of the white vote, this assertion of the Bourbons that "they will elect their ticket" regardless of a great mass of voters, should be gravely considered. If they mean they will elect their ticket by a suppression of the colored vote in some way, (and if they do not mean this, what do they mean?) is it not for the patriotic, thoughtful white citizens of the country to say, "Our situation is not so desperate as to justify any such course"? The evils that will flow from such a course are almost innumerable, while the only argument that can be advanced in favor of it, viz., that unless we do resort to a suppression of this vote, it will be massed against us to restore a rule of prejudice, hate, and fanaticism, is not at the present time sound. To resort to violence or fraud, or both, virtually places us under the rule of the bullet instead of the ballot. It is undeniable that our streets have already witnessed scenes of blood from violence that owed its rise directly to this evil. At one time here, when it was thought that the bullet and bull-zing would control the affairs of this county, no one felt safe, for it could not be told who would be the mark of the desperado and the assassin. The only thing that stopped this fearful state of affairs was the determination of the people that these methods should not prevail in this campaign, and the only thing that will cause it to exist again, is the permission of the good citizens, or their countenance of violence, fraud, and intolerance.

The Herald further says that "the colored voters that to a great extent represent the labor of the county (Warren) request representation by two men of their own race and choice, in the legislature" (from the county) also "one as treasurer of the county, a deputy in the sheriff's office, a deputy in the chancery clerk's office, and one-third of the magistrates and constables." On these conditions the colored voters "will agree in such a manner—the white voters cannot possibly doubt their good faith—to support any white candidates the white voters can agree upon for the remaining offices." This proposition the Herald advocates and adds: "Such a consummation would be just and right, fully in accord with the conservative principles of the Democratic-Conservative party and the Vicksburg Convention, and its future value as a precedent could hardly be estimated. Peace, harmony, and progress would spring from it, while distrust and bitterness between the property owners and laborers would be swept away for long years to come."

The earnestness with which the Herald advocates this compromise on the ground that the colored voters are two to one white in the county, is certainly a faint sign that there is some little sense left even among the Mississippi Democrats. We shall see whether the plan will succeed or not. If it does not the shot gun plan will.

In the meantime a letter has turned up, written by the late Captain H. M. Dixon, of Yazoo county, to the Rev. Mr. Hedrix of Fairfield, Iowa, and published in the Des Moines Register. It was written only eight days before Capt. Dixon's murder by James Barksdale. We publish it below as throwing further light upon Mississippi politics:

YAZOO CITY, Aug 11.

Leslie Bassett, Esq.,

Richland, Keokuk County, Iowa:

Your favor of [illegible] inst. at hand. I am glad you got a copy of the Herald, and am grieved to say it is too true all you have heard through the northern press of the outrage perpetrated in this county on July 25. Since that time a perfect reign of terror has existed in this county. My associate on the Independent ticket for Chancery Clerk has been hunted and his house surrounded for several nights by armed men, numbering from 50 to 100, demanding his withdrawal from the canvass, but as yet they have been unable to see Mr. J. E. Bell, who is the candidate for Chancery Clerk. There is no Republican ticket in this county. The independent ticket is composed of Democrats, but on account of the colored people supporting the ticket so generally, it has aroused the Bourbon Democrats to such a high pitch that they declare no opposition ticket shall be put in the field. Every effort is being made to cover up their action here on the 25th ult. You cannot imagine or picture the scene of that mob, and but for our gallant Mayor, J. H. Holt, blood would have been spilled and myself and many friends murdered. As to the race issue that is all bosh. The negroes are all quiet and could not be aroused to arms by any one, and were they to attempt such a thing, no one would rally to the protection of the intelligence of the intelligence of the county quicker than myself, and every white person in the county knows it, I have said nothing as yet, but so soon as the time arrives I will be heard from. You will please not use my name if you publish this; as it may injure me in some way. I intend to come out with full details as soon as it is prudent.

Yours very truly,

H. M. DIXON.

If there was ever any doubt as to the hellish proceedings by which that infamous state is held by the Democrats, such information as the above dispels it. If ever there has been a hell on earth and devils in human shape, they exist among these unspeakable villains and barbarians.

THE W. N. C. RAILROAD.

It seems that for some time Mr. Wilson had fallen into the habit of doing very much as he pleased in regard to the affairs of the road, without reference to the state. If he wanted anything he bought it. If he wanted a locomotive he bought it of Baldwin & Co. for $7,500 on his own account, and of this $7,500 he borrowed of the state $6,000. In another place Mr. Wilson states that he was obliged to go surety, for the state to the Baldwins for this engine, and also that the people along the line of the road would not trust the state for ties, wood &c, any more than the Baldwin's would for a locomotive. It is certainly a new feature in finances for a party to borrow money of a party to get the means to do his own business, and then save the credit of the party from whom he borrowed, by his own guaranty. But Mr. Aiken seems to have been doing exactly that.

On page 66, Doc. No. 27, Mr. Wilson says:

"One new engine has been purchsed by me from Baldwin & Co., of Philadelphia, for $7,500, of which $6,000 was furnished by the State of North Carolina from the amount due this Company for the superstructure of the road, Mr. Clayton and I guaranteeing to the state that cross ties to that amount should be furnished to reimburse the state, and the state should have a lein on the engine, as well as our personal security; the balance, $1,500 was furnished by Mr. Clayton and myself."

At this point Mr. Aiken makes the sollowing comment:

Just here the committee might have taken a new departure and had Mr. W. explained how it was that the state Treasurer was so exacting as to require of him security before drawing this $6,000 [said to be] "due the company for superstructure of the road." When was there ever such an example of arrogance on the part of a State Treasurer? Require the proper officer, presenting a Treasury Warrant for money due his company, to give security for the amount, and that payable in cross-ties too, before drawing the money! Such unblushing insolence seems almost too much for human patience. But, is Mr. Wilson a dolt or an idiot as his testimony would have you believe? Far from it indeed. Does any one believe or even suspect for a moment that the $6,000 was "due this Company for superstructure of the road" or for anything whatever? No not one.

Mr. Aiken now asks of Wilson & Co. a very serious question "where is the law which authorizes these transactions?" or words to that effect.

It is in fact worth while for the state authorities to look into this matter a little, and may be some of the people, especially along the line of that road, may dnsire to know whether the details of the business of this large corporation are carried on without legal authority, or rather on defiance of law. Here is Mr. Aiken's language:

Who will point out the laws under which these guarantees, liens and personal sureties were executed, and this $6,000 of the people's money turned over to Mr. Wilson? Where is to be the end of this line of potiey in paying out Treasury funds on the demand or importunity of this AUTOCRAT OF MUD CUT? Is his "reputation as a rail road man" so precious in the eyes of the people that is to be upheld by occasional advances of this kind, or are there to be regular advances to him, upon the same kind of security, of 80 per cent, out of the State Treasury on every purchase of rolling stock which he may deem necessary in order that the friends of his candidates may be carried free to the political conventions and elections along the W. N. C. R. R? Is this the programme? If not, what is it?

Now Mr. Aiken trots out "that saw mill" as a frightful example of Wilson's manner of doing the business of the road and the state. It seems by Wilson's statement that the saw mill was owned by him, the timber cut from his land [illegible] There seems to have been no terms otherwise with the state:

Now concerning that saw mill, so prominently shown on the Committee's Diagram of "Mud Cut and its surroundings," the object of admiration for so many thousands of excursionists, hear him:

Q. "Explain how your saw mill at Round Knob is being worked."

A. "The saw mill is my own; kept in repair by me; the timber furnished by me, but the mill is worked by convict labor; the compensation to be received by me is to be fixed by the Treasurer of the state; I have received nothing yet."

So immense is the value of the yearly rental of this 24x32 saw mill, that all Western North Carolina cannot furnish a man or men capable of estimating it, and the solution can only be accomplished by reference to a man accustomed to counting in the millions. A handsome tribute (?) indeed to the intelligence of the lumbermen and mill men of this region.

We now give room to Mr. Aiken's final diatribe against the unhappy and rascally Wilson, and his confreres engaged in doing business for the state. We modestly suggest in behalf of ourself and our readers, that Governor Jarvis, some day when he feels well enough, shall take one of those junketing excursions of his out west, make a call on Major Wilson and look into his manner of doing business for the state. He had better take along his Attorney General, so as to ascertain whether Wilson has in fact been violating law. They may make out a case of crim. con. between Wilson and the state, as they easily could now a case of scandalum magnatum.

But here is Mr. Aiken's final shot:

We have now seen this MUD CUT CHIEF in the character of President, general manager and sole contractor, making large verbal and secret bargains with the Company—unrecorded except as his own private account—claiming a locomotive in possession of the road as his own, employing the whole road for his own personal use at his own pleasure, and as it were carrying the whole business in his breeches pockets, the taxpayers who support this autocracy denied information of its condition and laws of the state set at naught to satisfy his greediness. If such be a mere outline as seen by the light of the one-sided testimony furnished by the accused, what must be the picture when the full light of a faithful investigation is turned upon the true inwardness of this despicable mismanagement?

Let the people answer.

WM. R. AIKEN,

Jeard Station, Burke Co., N. C., Aug. 6th, 1879.

Being a Republican, and therefore only a fractional citizen, and moreover having only a sort of left-handed acquaintance with those dignitaries who now lounge around the Capitol at Raleigh, we ought to apologise perhaps for the freedom with which we have given publicity to Mr. Aiken's sayings, and ventilated Major Wilson's business habits. If that placid and comprehensive brain, now our Palinurus at the helm of state, which has already conceived one "North Carolina Railroad Policy," will now lend a small amount of its genius towards the achievements of Major Wilson, no doubt there will be a chance for further "policies." In fact this conglomeration of "Mud Cuts," saw mills, tie-getting, wood hauling and convention running, indicates that there is already a policy.

THE TWO VICTORIES.

The election in California in which the Republicans carried all their Congressmen, their Governor and the Legislature has been followed by a greater triumph in Maine. If it might be said that in California the result was due to the confusion in the ranks of our opponents, it may be said with much greater truth that the result in Maine is due to rigorous discipline in our own ranks. It has been very rare that any man ever brought to a canvass such complete knowledge of the situation, and used that knowledge with so much judgment. It is a brilliant triumph, not only to Senator Blaine, but to those who came gallantly to his aid, and the true men of that state.

The whole vote cast this year was about 14,000 more than last year when the Republicans were beaten. Of this the Republicans gained 12,000, the Greenbackers 9,000, while the Democrats lost 7,000. The Republican gain came mainly from a latent vote that was brought out, and Republicans reclaimed from the Greenbackers, together with a few bolting hard money Democrats. The surprising thing is that the Greenbackers cast about 50,000 votes, while the Democratic vote fell to nearly nothing, thus leaving the Republicans with a round majority above both factions, lacking about 300. The Senate stands, Republicans 18 out of 31, and the House 89 Republicans to 62 fusion.

The contest on all sides was nearly the hottest and bitterest ever known in the annals of partisan warfare. Every little remote locality seemed to have been crowded with contesting speakers and managers, and flooded with printed documents. Added to this were all those showy appliances of music, transparencies, banners, pyrotechnics and gay processions, which recalled the great uprisings of 1840 and 1860.

WAIT.

The order has gone forth from the Commander-in-Chief, from all the stump speakers, and from every newspaper in the Democratic party, that no more bulldozing shall be committed in the south during the elections in the [illegible] The murderous, the blood-thirsty demons of the Democratic party have been ordered and entreated to wait until after the Presidential election of 1880, before they kill any more white or colored Republicans in the south. The Democratic papers are now begging the brethren of their party to wait and subordinate everything to Democratic success in 1880. Then they can continue their pastime of shooting the blacks and whites of the Republican party. Will the people of the north make a note of this? If the Democratic party carries the election in 1880, and gets complete control of the United States government, the life of a Republican in the south will not be worth a penny. The blood of 10,000 murdered Republicans in the south cries from the earth, to the north to rally and save their associates in the Republican party of the southern rebel states. We tell people of the north that hundreds of Republicans are assassinated in the south which are never reported, from the fact that the Republicans are afraid to speak of it. How long will the north allow this to continue?

MISSISSIPPI.

Chisholm Murder Trial—Seventy Witnesses to Testify—Evidence for the state.

DEKALB, Sept. 8.—The taking of evidence in the trial of Henry J. Gully, for the murder of Cornelia Chisholm, on April 29th, 1877, began at 9 o'clock this morning. Seventy witnesses—thirty two for the state and thirty eight for the defence—were sworn and put under rule and excluded from the court room.

Mrs. Chisholm, first witness, testified that an excited crowd of men entered DeKalb on the evening of April 28th, 1877. It was largely increased on the following morning. Sinclair, then Sheriff, arrested her husband on the morning of the 29th. He asked to be placed under guard at his own house, and sought an instant investigation of the charges against him. Armed men kept coming around the house. Sheriff Sinclair conversed with them and then talked to Chisholm. Chisholm told one crowd, "You cowardly scoundrels, you will kill me before evening, but before you do it I will make some of you bite the dust." Sinclair came to my husband about 11 o'clock and said: "They say you must go to jail." McClellan, myself, my sons Clay, Johnnie and Willie, and my daughter Cornelia, accompanied my husband to the jail. We were clinging to him to shield his body. Mr. Mosely and Mr. Overstreet were inside the jail with the party, and the door of the lower floor of the jail was locked behind them. The family were up stairs, and the door was locked on the inside. I was sent home by my husband on an errand, and heard firing as I came back toward the jail; saw old man McClellan fall, pierced by several buckshot, behind the jail. I rushed inside the jail, and found the stairs crowded with men. Rosser was at the top of the stairs, and Wm. Gully trying to break the lock of the upper door with axes. My daughter Cornelia, son Johnnie, and Mr. Overstreet were holding the door on the inside. My daughter's face was bleeding. Rosser said to my daughter, "Damn your soul, I will blow your brains out if you don't get out of the way." Rosser fired the first shot though the broken lock, which severed my son's hand from his arm. The door was here broken open and my little boy Bill shot through the heart. Some one inside fired and Rosser fell dead. Two men caught him by the heels and dragged him down stairs. My husband was bewildered at the death of Johnnie. I and my son Clay carried the dead boy down stairs. Cornella and father came down stairs. Henry J. Gully came up and raised his gun. I closed the grated door at the bottom of the stairway. My daughter clasped my husband around the neck. Gully fired through the grating in the door, and my daughter screamed, "I am shot." Judge Chisholm opened the door, and as he stepped out Henry Gully came out of an adjourning room with another gun and fired again at him and he fell. Clay and I assisted my husband in reaching home. My daughter was bleeding in the face. Her eyes were blackened by a blow. She was shot in the wrist, in the ankle and in the heel. She was shot by Henry Gully. She died on the 15th of May. She died from the effects of her wounds.

Mrs. Chisholm produced Cornelia's bracelet, which was broken and driven into her arm; also five buckshot taken out of her body.

DEKALB, Sept. 9.—The state is attempting to establish a conspiracy.

N. C. Sinclair, witness for the state, testified that on the 29th of April, 1877, he was Sheriff of Kemper county; that warrants were placed in his hands for the arrest of Chisholm and other parties, charged with the murder of J. W. Gully. He deputized several parties to accompany him and aid in making the arrests, thinking he might need assistance. He found Chisholm at his home, and told him his business. Chisholm laughed at it. He placed men to guard Chisholm. A guard during the morning gathered around the house, among them was Henry Gully. Chisholm sent for him to come to the house. On arriving, Chisholm said to Gully, "You think I killed your brother, John Gully?" Gully responded, "If you did not kill him, your money hired him killed." Chisholm did not deny this, but only replied, "I don't want to die just now." Witness objected to McClellan, the Scotchman, going as a guard to the jail, because he feared some danger would befall him on account of his being a Republican. He knew McClellan to be distasteful to the crowd.

On cross-examination defendant's counsel attempted to show by this witness that McClellan was distasteful to the crowd and people generally, not because of his being a Republican, but for other reasons entirely different, principally on account of his being a bad man. The state objected to further inquiry into the Sheriff's reasons for apprehending harm to McClellan, and the Court sustained the objection. The witness stated that the keys of the jail were twisted from his hands while Chisholm and his family were in jail. Did not see any of the shooting. He was at the burial of Jno. W. Gully. Several hundred people were present. Their actions caused him to suspect serious trouble was brewing.

W. A. Hoher, introduced by the state counsel for prosecution, and asked witness if he did not hear some one say Chisholm was being carried to jail so the crowd could kill him. Witness replied, No, sir. Are you afraid to testify here? asked counsel. No, sir. Did not you state to one the other day that you heard this? To this the counsel for defence objected. Counsel for the prosecution—you can stand aside; we have your private statement here in writing.

DEKALB, September 10.—The state, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, rested its case in the trial of Henry J. Gully, for the murder of Cornelia Chisholm. The object of the prosecution has been to establish a conspiracy on the part of the defendant and others to kill Chisholm, Gilmer and Rosenbaum, and in carrying it into effect killed Cornelia and the other parties. An attempt was made to show that on the night after the burial of Jno. W. Gully a meeting of the conspirators was held at the house of John Gully to mature plans for carrying the conspiracy into effect, but the state's own witness proved the object of that meeting to be nothing more than to discuss the practicability of a body of citizens going to DeKalb the following day to assist in the arrest of Chisholm and others charged with the murder of John W. Gully, should they resist and assistance be necessary. On this point the state gained no strength.

Among the declarations made after the killing of Chisholm, going to show the conspiracy, was the declaration by the defendant, "what we have done what we come to do, and that if there is any hanging to be done here is my neck." The testimony of the defence has tended to contradict some of the material statements of witnesses for the prosecution as to the firing in the jail, who shot Cornelia and Judge Chisholm, what parties in the crowd had guns, the actions of the defendant in jail during the firing, and the relative positions of all the parties.

DEKALB, September 11.

Defence introduced witnesses.

Testimony being all in, argument was opened by prosecuting attorney Ford, followed by Woods for defence, then by Meek for prosecution, then by Judge Morris of Vicksburg, who made the closing argument for the prosecution.

In outlining the case for the state, the District Attorney summed up all the facts in the evidence going to show a conspiracy on the part of the defendant and others to murder Chisholm, as a result of which Cornelia Chisholm was killed. These facts consisted principally of actions on the part of the citizens at the burial of John W. Gully the evening before the killing of Chisholm, together with declarations made by the defendant and others on that day.

THE following are a few of the testimonials in favor of the Schnapps:

MR. UDOLPHO WOLFE, 22 Beaver street, New York:

Dear Sir—I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre eminently pure, and deserving of liberal patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians,

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D., Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

22 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq. Present:

Dear Sir—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, or recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully, yours,

Signed CHAS. A. SHERLY, Chemist.

Dear Sir—I submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of Schiedam Schnaps, which I took from a fresh package in my bonded warehouse, and find as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics. Respectfully,

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1879.

The Debt of Virginia—Compromise or Repudiation the Contest in the Conservative Party.

From the Richmond (Va.) State.

No man who will calmly consider the situation and look the facts squarely in the face, can possibly reach any other conclusion than that the settlement of the debt question so happily reached by the last General Assembly is, from whatever stand-point we may view it, highly favorable to the people, and that if any one has cause to complain it is not the men who have agreed to pay so much of their debt at a reduced interest, but the creditors who have consented to accept this half-loaf proposition and do the best they can with it. Already had they consented to the actual repudiation of one-third of the entire debt, accepting West Virginia for that portion, notwithstanding her protest and declaration that she would not recognize any part of the debt of Virginia as belonging to her, and would never pay it. This clipping of their bonds down a third was what the Commonwealth gained by the old funding bill of 1861, amounting in round figures to $15,000,000. There was hardly a fair minded man in the state at that time who did not accept that settlement as a liberal one on the part of the creditors; and a great majority of the Conservative party demanded that the provisions of this contract should be carried out in good faith. Under this settlement our securities rose rapidly toward par, and property was increasing in value, immigration was setting in toward the state, and capital was looking this way for investment in the industries and arts. In fact, the year 1871, in which the funding was being carried on under circumstances which promised to see the entire debt turned into consol bonds, with or without coupons, and aggregating but thirty million at 6 per cent. interest, promised to be the beginning of our prosperity. The entire interest would have been but $1,800,000, and by the 1st of January, 1872, there was not only money enough in the treasury to pay this interest and take in every coupon that would fall due, but to carry on the government upon a liberal scale, pay the amount due the literary fund, and set the schools in operation.

This was the pleasant condition of our financial affairs when the Legislature elected in 1871 met in December, and almost the first thing they did was to repeal the funding law, or that clause of it which made coupons past due receivable for taxes. This was the first step toward repudiation, and it was managed and carried through under false pretexts by the men who are now leaders in the Mozart Hall party, and whose object then was, as it is now, to get rid of the interest on the debt, that they themselves being, in power, might have all the revenues of the state to carry out their personal schemes of greed and aggrandizement. And this is what they still desire. There is not enough money to satisfy their greed, pay high salaries and fees to their friends and followers, cousins and uncles, and also pay what we honestly owe. There is nothing new in the idea, for it is one that has been acted upon by fraudulent creditor since the world began. There is not a rascal in the land who would not get rid of his debts by this heroic method if he could, and still escape kicking.

By misrepresenting the objects and real intents of that Funding bill, and appealing to the worst instincts of the worst or most ignorant classes in the state, they succeeded in their object, and our finances were immediately thrown into the most chaotic confusion. The simple method of the framers of that mode of settlement was not only entirely changed, but confidence was at once shaken in the good faith of the state and her people, and from that time we have labored under all the disadvantages of the bad reputation we thus gained abroad through the evil acts of these evil-doers. The patriotism and honesty of the state had been exerted in vain to throw off this burden of infamy and escape its consequences until last winter, when our creditors, utterly despaired of receiving even and exact justice at our hands, consented to really take what we chose to give them in honor, and call it quare. The result of their offer was this new funding bill, whose terms and promises are so liberal as we have stated, that nine out of every ten reasonable men in the state were delighted with their acceptance. Indeed, we do not suppose the opposers or objectors number even that small fraction. We agreed with them to fund the entire debt on a capital basis of something over $20,000,000, with interest for the first period of 10 years at 3 per cent., which would be $300,000, the second period at 4 per cent., or $1,200,000, and the third period at 5 per cent., or $1,500,000. By this agreement we shall make a saving of $900,000 the first years, and pay interest on all our bonds; of $600,000 the second years, and pay interest on all the bonds, and of $300,000 the remainder of the time, per annum, and pay up all the bonds. This was most assurdely a great financial achievement, and one that has been gladly accepted as a final settlement by nearly the entire people, with the funding going rapidly ahead. We should have heard no more of the debt, which would have ceased from troubling, but for the few restless spirits who are compelled to seize upon it as the only pretext for carrying their small factions into power and place by destroying the Conservative Party, if we permit them to accomplish that purpose.

There was no other remedy but for the party to make this a test of fidelity to the organization, and this has now been done, and though we may not have killed the snake, we know by its writhings how seriously it has been scotched, how nigh unto death's door it lies, and how small the effort now required on our part to put it forever "in its little grave."

Our Late Minister to Greece—An Athenian Tribute to Gen. J. Meredith Read.

The departure of Gen. Read from Greece is a cause of universal regret; for during a residence of six years in our midst, he has endeared himself to all by his many accomplishments, his attractive personal character, and his devotion to the best interests of our country. Upon his first arrival here he set himself to work to gather information in all directions as to the actual condition and capabilities of the Greek people. In the course of his profound investigations, he accumulated one of the finest collections of books existing upon Greece—unique as regards mediæval and modern works. These he carefully studied and annotated, accompanying his researches by personal ivestigation and inquiries among all classes in different parts of Greece. He thus became gradually the sincere, confidential friend, and hearty sympathizer of a people whom he felt had been unjustly dealt with. Although officially his efforts were limited to a strict adherence to the policy of non-intervention maintained by his Government, his personal views were known to all. Wherever he was he raised his voice in behalf of Greece. His deep knowledge of ancient and modern Greek history enabled him to speak with a force and ability which met every difficulty and solved every sincere doubt. Gen. Reade has become one of the most potent authorities on all that concerns the Eastern question, and there is certainly no foreigner who is so thoroughly acquainted with the character and capabilities of the Greek race. These remarkable advantages, we are confident, will not be withheld from Greece in the present important moment, while the question of territory is still pending. Gen. Reade is no longer in official life; he will therefore be entirely free to use his knowledge in behalf of Greece. He is so widely known in Europe, and possesses so many influential friends especially in England, France, and Germany, that this great experience and his suggestions cannot fail to have a most favorable effect. The distinguished philhellenist, in leaving, is therefore accompanied by the best wishes and warmest thanks of our country, of the sincerest gratitude of which, we doubt not, he must be entirely confident.—From the Athens Telegraph.

An old man sneaked into the office of a Philadelphia iron foundry, a few days, opened a drawer with a skeleton key, stole $55, and was caught. This was Charles Laugheimer, the convict made famous by Dickens as an illustration of the horrors of solitary confinement. He has served terms in prison since Dickens saw and pitied him.

PROF. HARRIS' RADICAL CURE FOR SPERMATORHŒA.

THE "SEMINAL PASTILLE"

A Valuable Discovery and New Departure in Medical Science, an entirely new and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent Cure of Seminal Emissions & Impotency by the only true way, viz: Direct application to the principal seat of the Disease, acting by absorption, and exerting its specific influence on the Seminal Vesicles, Prostate Gland and Urethra. The use of the Remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience, it is quickly dissolved and absorbed, producing an immediate soothing and restorative effect upon the sexual and nervous organization, wrecked from self-abuse and excesses, stopping the drain from the system, restoring the mind to health and strong memory, removing the Dimness of Sight, Nervous Debility, Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, etc. Etc. and the appearance of premature old age usually accompanying this trouble, and restoring perfect Sexual Vigor, where it has been dormant for years. This mode of treatment has stood the test in very severe cases, and is now a pronounced success. Drugs are too much prescribed in these troubles, and, as many can bear witness, with but little if any permanent good. There is no mistake about this Preparation, Practical observation enables us to positively guarantee that it will give satisfaction. ——During the eight years that it has been in general use, we have thousands of testimonials as to its Value, and it is now conceded by the Medical Profession as the most rational means yet discovered for treating and curing this very prevalent trouble, that is well known to be the cause of untold misery to so many, and upon whom quacks prey with their nostrums and big puffs. The Remedy is put up in a neat box, enough to last a month, and sent to a plain wrapper by mail sealed for $2—two boxes, sufficient to effect a permanent cure unless in extreme cases) $3 —three boxes lasting three full months will stop emissions, and restore vigor, in the worst cases of ——Full DIRECTIONS for using will accompany EACH BOX.

Send for a Descriptive Pamphlet giving Anatomical Illustrations, which will convince the most incredulous that they can be restored to correct manhood, and fitted for the duties of life, if not as it never effected. Sent sealed for stamp to any address. SOLD ONLY by the

LIFE IN A BOTTLE.

The Most Valuable Medical Discovery Known to the World—No More Use For Quinine, Calomel or Mineral Poisons—Life for the Blood, Strength For the Nerves, and Health for All.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC.

Believing that by cleansing the blood and building up the constitution was the only true way of banishing disease and being troubled with weakness of the lungs, catarrh, very much broken down in constitution, &c., and after trying the best physicians and paying out my money for many kinds of medicines advertised without finding a permanent cure, I began doctoring myself, using medicines made from roots and herbs. I fortunately discovered a wonderful Bitters or Blood Cleanser, the first bottle of which gave me new life and vigor, and in time effected a permanent cure. I was free from catarrh, my lungs became strong and sound, being able to stand the most severe cold and exposure, and I have gained over thirty pounds in weight. Feeling confident that I had made a wonderful discovery in medicine, I prepared a quantity of the Root Bitters, and was in the habit of giving them away to sick friends and neighbors. I found the medicine effected the most wonderful cures of all diseases caused from humors or scrofula in the blood, Imprudence, Bad Stomach, Weakness, Kidney Disease, Torpid Liver, &c., &c. The news of my discovery in this way spread from one person to another until I found myself called upon to supply patients with medicine far and wide and I was induced to establish a laboratory for compounding and bottling the Root Bitters in large quantities, and I now devote all my time to this business.

I was at first backward in presenting either myself or discovery in this way to the public, not being a patent medicine man and with small capital, but I am getting bravely over that. Since I first advertised this medicine I have been crowded with orders from druggists and country dealers, and the hundreds of letters I have received from persons cured, prove the fact that no remedy ever did so much good in so short a time and had so much success as the Root Bitters. In fact, I am convinced that they will soon take the lead of all other medicines in use. Nearly one hundred retail druggists, right here at home in Cleveland, now sell Root Bitters, some of whom have already sold over one thousand bottles.

Root Bitters are strictly a medicinal preparation, such as was used in the good old days of our forefathers, when people were cured by some simple root or plant, and when calomel and other poisons of the mineral kingdom were unknown.

They act strongly on the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels regular and build up the nervous sagstem. They penetrate every part of the body, searching out every nerve, bone and tissue from the head to the feet cleansing and strengthening the foutain springs of life, hence they must reach all diseases by purification and nourishment.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, what the disease or ailments is, use Root Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use the Bitters at once. It may save your life.

Thousands of persons in all parts of the country are already using ROOT BITTERS, They have saved many lives of consumptives who had been given up by friends and physicians to die, and have permanently cured many old chronic cases of Catarrh, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and skin Diseases, where all other treatments had failed. Are you troubled with sick headache, costiveness, dizziness, weakness, bad taste in the mouth, nervousness, and broken down down in constitution? You will be cured if you take ROOT BITTERS. Have you humors and pimples on your face or skin? Nothing will give you such good health, strength, and beauty as ROOT BITTERS.

☞ I know that jealous physicians will cry humbug because my discovery cures so many of their patients, but I care not. It is now my desire and determination to place my ROOT BITTERS as fast as possible within the reach of all those suffering throughout the world. Sold by wholesale and retail druggists and country merchants, or sent by express on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles $5.00. For certificates of wonderful cures, see my large circular around each bottle of medicine. Read and judge for yourself.

☞ Ask your druggist or merchant for FRAZIER'S ROOT BITTERS, the great Blood Cleanser, and take no substitute he may recommend because he makes a larger profit.

THE WILMINGTON POST,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1879.

Mr. S. Hanstein has just returned from a trip north, where he has been laying in a splendid stock of dry goods. He is looking in splendid health, and very much as though he had been having a huge old time. We understand that Mr. Hanstein met with a young lady while in New York who is willing to take the risk of joining fortunes with him, for better or for worse, for life, and Mr. H. says he expect to marry very soon. We congratulate the young lady on her good fortune, for Hanstein is really one of our very best citizens.

A bale of cotton was raffled for in this city Friday night for the benefit of Gen. Hosd's children.

The steamer Tybee, Captain Tribon, from New York arrived in this city Wednesday. The Tybee was put on the line in connection with the steamers Benefactor and Regulator until the southern bound freights in New York can be cleared away.

Gabe Everitt and Gool Foy, both colored, were sent to this city in custody of Officer Carney, under commitment from Justice Gerritt Walker, of Harnett township, upon the charge of larceny, in default of $200 bond for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

ROBBERY ABOARD SHIP. Atchison's bunk aboard the barque James James E. Ward, unloading in front of the Custom House, was robbed on Monday night of a pocket book containing valuable papers and some money. The robbery took place about the time of the desertion of two seamen and they were thought to be the thieves. One of them was arrested but nothing leading to his guilt could be established and he was released. Capt. Atchison thinks that the book was extracted from his bunk by the thief running his arm through the port hole.

"YES I KNOW, THAT IS SO." So says the far-famed Little Buttercup to the gallant Captain of the "Pinafore.", when he remarks that the Southern Musical Journal gives the most music for the least money, and a solid musical South with its "sisters" and its cousins, and its "aunts," will join heartily in the refrain. "Yes I know, that is so."

This point settled, we shall in daily expectation of receiving your subscription or at least Ten Cents for a specimen copy, with its Dollar's worth of music. The September number contains the following music: "Let the Dead and the Beautiful Rest," song and chorus, by S. Wesley Martin; "Sensation Waltz," by Beckt; "Three Fishers," song by Hullah. Send for this number. Address the publishers LUDDEN & BATES, Savannah, Ga.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Very little of his Honor's time has been claimed during the past week.

Robt. Herring, colored, for fast driving on the street, was fined $2.50.

J. M. Whiteman, colored, for same offence, was fined a similar amount.

Judy Ann Hunter, colored, a former frequent attendant at the Mayor's Court, was arraigned for being drunk and disorderly and sent below for one day.

Mince Evans, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2 or given the privilege of a day and night in the cell.

Julius Jones, a colored lad, about 17 or 18 years of age, was arraigned for disorderly conduct in the market House and sentenced to ten days imprisonment in the city prison.

Wm. Phinney was arraigned on two charges, viz: disorderly conduct and resisting the police. Upon the first charge his Honor said, $25 or thirty days, and upon the second charge, it appearing in the evidence that the defendant was very violent, the Mayor repeated the dose of $25 or thirty days.

LAST WEEKS' FIRES.—There have been two conflagrations in the city this week. Tuesday at about 8 o'clock a house belonging to Mrs. Collisson, in the Southern part of the city, was partly destroyed, and was covered by insurance.

Friday morning the carriage factory of Alderman James Lowery, situated on the corner of Fourth and Campbell streets, was consumed. It was no doubt the work of an incendiary who had set his mind on plunder. The factory, tools and stock were a total loss. The dwelling next adjoining the factory which was also owned and occupied by Alderman Lowery caught fire, but was soon extinguished without much damage to it. Quite a number of articles, including wearing apparel, bedding and a carpet were stolen during the excitement which ensued. Alderman Lowery had an insurance of $800 on the building and $350 on stock and tools in the Royal of Liverpool, represented in this city by Mr. Norwood Giles, but it is estimated that his loss will amount to $1,500 over and above the insurance. His dwelling was insured in Atkinson & Manning's Agency, and the damage is fully covered. Notwithstanding the rapidity with which the fire spread the Fire Department kept it confined to the building in which it originated.

Brunswick Affairs.

SMITHVILLE, Sept. 10, 1879.

At the session of the Board of County Commissioners, for Brunswick county, held Aug. 25th, at Smithville, the following orders of interest to the public were passed:

1st. That a public road be laid out from the Georgetown road, commencing at Ed. R. Lancasters and running to Howels Point. Joseph Stanley, W. McKeithan and J. B. Mercer were appointed a committee to lay out the same and report to the next session of the Board.

2nd. Francis M. Moore of Northwest Township was appointed to secure the right of way for a term of years of the abandoned bridge or benches across Sturgeon Creek, from the Railroad Company for a public way.

The Board at this session also met as a Board of revisal of the county assessment of taxes, Messrs. Stanley and Evans, county assessors at large, being present.

The session reminded one of the stormy times of old. The conflict between the Commissioners and County Assessors and the poor taxpayer at times was of a character that reached the border, if it did not pass the line, of the ludicrous. One man came—round travel—some one hundred miles to obtain a reduction on the valuation of his property—value $800. The way he went for the C. C. and County Board of Assessors evinced abilities on his part that would have done credit to some of the famous Romans of old, and had Tilden or Tweed been present he would have made his calling sure, and been immediately placed in employment in Ohio or New York.

The reduction allowed was $200, and the stalwart citizen walked forth, his face covered with indications of "Didn't I tell you so." He paid $10 to secure $1.33⅓ cents and cost the county some $6 in wasted time.

The fun came when the question come up on the payment of several items of expense in connection with the execution of poor Jack Davis. The fight was hot and heavy, and at one time it threatened the utter overthrow of the county government. T. M. Williams, Esq., had been authorized to take charge and use his judgment in obtaining such articles as were needed and the Board sought to go back on him by refusing to pay the bills, and Williams went for them in a style which was commendable, and showed his brothers of the Board that he had a good idea of right and wrong, and an independence of character which turpentine and pitch could not wipe out. The fight ended by Mr. Hewett, Chairman of the Board, resigning and expressing the wish that he never would be called to Smithville again—Goodbye. Davis is at rest at last.

The Board then elected J. B. Evans, Esq., as Chairman. Dr. W. G. Curtis' bill for $20 for attending the execution of Davis was very properly rejected, and five dollars allowed him.

At the meeting of the Board of Commissioners, Sept. 1st, the following orders were passed:

1st. For the repairing of Hood's Creek upper bridge, J. L. Thorp, A. V. Goodman and J. B. Evans were appointed to do the work. The jury for the next term of court was drawn, nearly all of whom are located in the lower section of the county.

The second day the Commissioners met as a Board of Education, and appointed one hundred and seventy-one school committeemen for the county.

2nd. That a new School District be created for the white in Town Creek, and known as No. 9. Geo. Leonard was appointed County Examiner of Schools.

3rd. That the various school committees of the respective School Districts of the county call in all outstanding school orders of their several Districts and enter the same in a book so as to show the full amount of said Districts indebtedness, and present said book to the Board at the meeting on the first Monday in December.

4th. That no school committee shall issue any orders upon the county Treasurer unless their Districts are free from debt. This order implies that there can be no schools in Districts in debt, until they pay up their old bills.

The Board adjourned to meet on the third Monday in October.

STATE ITEMS.

They are about to build a new Court House for Pasquotank at Elizabeth City.

Gov. Jarvis has appointed J. A. Gilmer, Esq., of Greensboro, Judge to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Kerr.

The Alamance Gleaner states that David W. Kerr, the best and most skillful farmer in that county, died of lock-jaw, aged 60. He had bought one of the poorest farms in the county and made it the best.

Statesville American:—Among the speakers at the railroad meeting at Yadkinville will be Gen. John A. Young Charlotte, who is one of the best railroad men in the state.

Blue Ridge Blade:—We regret that the presiding officers of the two Houses failed to sign this bill, and that such failure on their part will prove detrimental to the interest of thousands of the poor children of the state.

Cheraw (S. C.) News:—Last Wednesday night (says the Merchant and Farmer) a thief entered Mr. Morris Clarke's bedroom while he and all his family were asleep, rifled his pantaloons pockets of $16 in currency, and abstracted a quilt from the bed where Mr. Clarke lay soundly sleeping. The theft was not discovered until the next morning. Henry Knight, a mulatto from Sefftetown, N. C., was arrested on suspicion.

Elizabeth City North Carolinian: Hon. J. C. L. Gudger, now holding the courts of this district, is making a good impression. After the adjournment of Currituck court last week he made a flying visit to Nags Head, and returned here on Sunday evening. He is now holding Camden court. He is the Judge of the Ninth District and resides in Waynesville. He is well posted in the law.

The Roanoke News says of the coming Weldon Fair:

The premiums are larger and will be awarded by gentlemen whose judgment none can doubt, and no article of merit will be overlooked, whether there is any published premium or not. The executive committee have ordered that if any article deserves a premium and none has been provided, that a special premium be awarded. The attractions at the next fair will be many and various, and the crowd will be larger than ever before.

Dr. Thos. H. Pritchard was inaugurated President of Wake Forest College on Wednesday of last week. The occasion was one of unusual interest; addresses were made by Prof. C. E. Taylor, Hon. C. M. Cook, Dr. Pritchard, the incoming President, Hon. K. P. Battle, President of the University, Governor Jarvis, Rev. J. C. Dixon, Hon. A. S. Merrimon and Dr. Thos. E. Skinner. The fall session of school is reported to have opened with 115 students, the largest opening since the war.

They have refreshing ways on Roan Mountain according to the Republican:

The hands objected to work a certain portion of the Cane Creek road and Carter Buchanan, who happened to be present, but did not belong to the gang advised them to strike and go home and not work as directed, when Pat. Green, the overseer, believing in the old adage that the hair of the dog would cure the bite hauled off with a small sized pole and laid out Carter, whereupon the hands went quietly to work as directed. Pat. ended the strike by striking, and Carter struck the ground when he was struck.

Edenton Edeon: The Tarboro Southerner is boasting of a 500 pound hog at 3 years old, and of nearly 20 bushels of wheat to the acre, raised in Edgecombe county. We have seen in this town two hogs, the property of a colored man, that when slaughtered were aged respectively 19 and 23 months, and weighed 429 and 452 pounds. They were rapidly growing up to the time of killing. We were informed by a Perquimans gentleman of credit that some time since he killed a hog weighing at 3½ years old 751 pounds. A year or two ago we were shown a hog of the White Chester breed, raised at this place, which weighed at about 2 years and 10 months old, over 600 pounds.

SURE CURE FOR PILES.

A sure cure for the blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst old chronic cases of twenty-five and thirty years' standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, Instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching particularly at night after getting warm in bed, acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts and nothing else.

☞I consulted physicians in Philadelphia, Louisville, Cincinnati Indianapolis and this city, and spent hundreds of dollars, and found no relief until I obtained a box of Dr. William's Indian Ointment some four months ago, and it has cured me completely.

JOSEPH M. RYDER, Cleaveland, O.

"Has done me more good than all the medicine I ever tried, and I have spent more than $100 with doctors, besides medicines I am sure cost me more than $50."

DAVID SPARLING, Ingraham, Ill.

"Have suffered twenty years with itching and ulcerated piles, having used every remedy that came to my notice without benefit, until I used Indian Ointment and received immediate relief.

JAMES CARROLL, an old miner, Tacoma, Nevada.

☞No Pile Remedy ever gained such rapid favor and extensive sale. Send by all wholesale and retail druggists. For sale by T. S. BURBANK.
